

I believe that if an individual doesn't want to be bothered with telemarketing calls, than their wishes should be respected.